AL-SERIES

MOTORIZED LINEAR LONG WIRE COLLECTOR

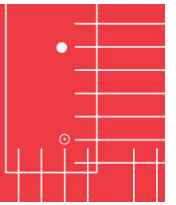

The Artos AL-Series Motorized Linear Long Wire Collectors have been designed to efficiently collect long wire processed on wire cutting and stripping machines.

The Artos AL-Series Motorized Linear Long Wire Collectors have been designed to efficiently collect long wire processed on wire cutting and stripping machines. The AL-Series are available for wire lengths from 1.5-10 meters, and utilize a moving conveyor belt to support and carry the wire down the length of the collector. A uniquely designed brake and sweep mechanism removes the wire from the belt, placing it into a stationary tray.

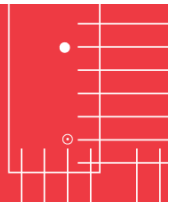

The AL-Series allow the continuous operation of a wire processing machine for long length wires. Bundles of wires can now be manually removed from the collection tray without machine stoppage, and without risk of damage. Operating independently of the wire processing machine, the AL-Series collectors can operate with most wire cutting and stripping machines.

FEATURES

- Independent Operation – does not require special interface for most machines
- Special brake feature eliminates belt rubs on your wire
- Collection length up to 32 ft (10 m)
- Simple installation and operation
- Collectors efficiently bundle long wires processed on the wire cutting and stripping machine
- Conveyor belt supports and carries wire down length of collector
